Alis programs and courses

Learn about what we do through a range of programs and courses designed to educate you on our core functions and your key responsibilities. Aged care legislation, policies and guidance inform all our content to support you to meet the needs of older people.

Some of our programs and courses:

- The Serious Incident Response Scheme (SIRS)
- The Governing for Reform Program
- The Quality Standards
- The Financial and Prudential Standards

Alis also hosts education from a range of partners, for example:

- The National Hand Hygiene Initiative (Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care)
- Telehealth Program (Victorian Primary Health Networks)
- Forced Adoption (Department of Social Services)

Alis access

Alis access is free for all Australian Government-funded providers and their employees. Go to our website (www.agedcarequality.gov.au) and search for 'Alis' to find our Alis webpage. It has step-by-step instructions on how to register for an account and get set up in Alis.

Private aged care providers and people who don't work in aged care can also buy yearly subscriptions to Alis. You can find pricing information and instructions on how to register on our Alis webpage. Go to our website (www.agedcarequality.gov.au) and search for 'Alis'.
