

Deregistration from bulk API

Form

Digital only form

This form is only available as a digital form.

To complete this form, you must use a PDF reader.

Do not open the PDF in a web browser or on a handheld device.

You cannot print this form.

Use this form to de-register (be removed) from the Commission's Application Programming Interface (API).

To submit your completed form:

- Save this form as a PDF.
- Email this form as an attachment to APIRegistration@agedcarequality.gov.au

Section 1: Provider details

Provider details

1.1 Australian Business Number (ABN)

Should match the ABN in the Australian Business Register.

1.2 Entity name

Should match the entity legal name in the Australian Business Register.

1.3 Provider ID for your API registration

Section 2: API access

This section tells us how you currently connect.

API access
2.1 Existing connection method	Self-implement (connect directly) Go to Section 3: Deregistration details. Through a third-party software operator Complete 2.2.
2.2 Name of the software operator The operator who currently manages your connection and submits on your behalf. Leave blank if you are self-implementing.

Section 3: Deregistration details

Deregistration details
3.1 Requested date to remove access Provide the date as DD/MM/YYYY.
3.2 Reason for deregistration Optional.

Section 4: Declaration

Declaration
I confirm that I am authorised to request removal of API access on behalf of the provider named in this form, and that all information in this form is true and correct.
4.1 Full name of responsible person Needs to match the name of a responsible person recorded in the Government Provider Management System (GPMS) for this provider.
4.2 Position title
4.3 Date Provide the date as DD/MM/YYYY.

 End of form. To submit your completed form, save this file and email it to APIRegistration@agedcarequality.gov.au.

September 2026