Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission

Quality assessors are here today from the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission to check on the standard of care and services at the home

Tell us about the quality of your care

If you (or someone who represents you) would like to speak with us please let the staff know so we can arrange to meet with you. We can also arrange an interpreter if needed or call Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450 and ask for Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission.

You can also contact us on 1800 951 822, select option 2.

You can also provide feedback about your experience of quality and safety at your home via an online survey at: <https://www.agedcarequality.gov.au/consumer-feedback>
